UNIVERSITÉ CONCORDIA
CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

1455 ouest, boul. de Maisonneuve
Montréal, Québec H3G 1M8
Telephone (514) 848-4880

CONCORDIA CONFERS NEW AWARD ON FIVE MONTREALERS

MONTREAL / May 3, 1988 --- Concordia University's Faculty of Commerce and Administration will honour First Québec Corporation President Eugene Reisman later this month for the contributions he has made to reshaping the face of downtown Montréal.

Reisman will join four other prominent Canadian businesspeople as the recipients of Concordia's first annual Awards of Distinction. The five award winners are:

STEPHEN JARISLOWSKY, President of Jarislowsky, Fraser and Company Ltd.

ROGER LACHAPELLE, President and Chief Executive Officer of Corby Distilleries Ltd.

ERIC MOLSON, Deputy Chairman of the Board, The Molson Companies Limited

EUGENE REISMAN, President, First Québec Corporation

LOUISE ROY, President and General Manager of the Montreal Urban Community Transit Corporation (MUCTC)

The Concordia awards are designed to recognize outstanding achievement in the fields of finance, commerce, and service to the community. They will be presented Tuesday, May 17, 1988, at 5:30 p.m., at Concordia's D. B. Clarke Theatre, in the Henry F. Hall Building, 1455 de Maisonneuve Boulevard West.

.../2

STEPHEN JARISLOWSKY: President of Jarislowsky, Fraser and Company Ltd. since 1955, Mr. Jarislowsky has also been instrumental in developing companies involved in such diverse areas as mutual funds, computer tax and printing. In addition to being an investment counsel he also sits on the board of directors of numerous organizations including the C.D. Howe Institute, Québec Pension Board, SNC Inc., Swiss Bank Corporation Canada, and Growth Oil & Gaz Investment Fund of Canada. Mr. Jarislowsky has also authored many articles for business papers and journals and appears on TV and radio to discuss business issues.

ROGER LACHAPELLE: President and Chief Executive Officer of Corby Distilleries Limited since 1979, Mr. Lachapelle has long been active in community and cultural affairs. In addition to his business interests he currently sits on the board of directors of Notre-Dame Hospital, Maisonneuve-Rosemont Hospital, Ste-Justine's Hospital, the Montreal Heart Institute Research Fund, Les Grands Ballets Canadiens, the Montreal Opera Corporation, and the Council for Canadian Unity, just to name a few.

ERIC MOLSON: Deputy Chairman of the Board, The Molson Companies Limited, he is the latest in a long line of Molson family members who have contributed to the economic life of Montréal, Québec and Canada. Mr. Molson currently serves as a Director of the Bank of Montreal, the Canadian Arctic Resources Committee, the Montreal General Hospital Foundation, the Quebec Easter Seal Society, the Selwyn House School Endowment Fund and the cultural organization Vie des Arts, which promotes awareness of the arts. He also sits on the Board of Governors of McGill University and the Olympic Trust of Canada.

EUGENE REISMAN: President of First Québec Coporation, which he formed in 1966, Mr. Reisman has come to be known as Mr. Montreal for his work during the past two decades in developing commercial properties in the city core. First Québec Corporation also has interests in Edmonton and the United States. Mr. Reisman's Montreal projects include La Maison des Coopérants, Les Terrasses, 2001 and 2020 University and 4150 St. Catherine St. West in Westmount. He is also President of the Yale Club of Montreal, a member of the Board of Governors of Technion Israel Institute of Technology, and is active in numerous other cultural and community associations.

.../3

LOUISE ROY: President and General Manager of the Montreal Urban Community Transit Corporation (MUCTC) since 1985, Ms. Roy is the author of several publications on urban transportation in Québec and has lectured here and abroad on transporation planning and technological change. She is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Laurentian Bank of Canada and a founding member of the Québec Leaders' Network, a forum for business leaders to meet and develop and exchange and ideas.

Date: Tuesday, May 17, 1988

Time: 5:30 P.M.

Location: D. B. Clarke Theatre
Henry F. Hall Building
1455 de Maisonneuve Bulevard West

-30-

Media representatives requiring further information should contact:

Concordia University Executive-in-Residence (Finance) PIERRE SEVIGNY, Chair of the Awards Committee, at (514) 848-2785, or

SHARON BISHIN, Public Relations Officer, at (514) 848-4882.